

SCHOOL UNIFORM EXPECTATIONS

Uniform should be worn with pride — it creates a sense of identity and equality, it is business-like, it prevents fashion displays, it enables students to be easily identified. All staff will challenge uniform infringements, no matter how small, as this enables a consistent message to be reinforced across the school.

If a student arrives in school wearing incorrect uniform, they will be sent to Student Services and may not be able to attend lessons. Examples include extreme hair colour/style, incorrect piercings, tight/flared trousers, incorrect footwear, ripped or frayed uniform, nail varnish, obtrusive make-up. Skirts and trousers should not be denim/lycra/canvas

The items are part of your daughter's school equipment and should be clearly labelled with her name. All items are available at the Trutex shop.
